WELCOME HOME PICNIC JULY 18th

IRMA WINS AT WAINWRIGHT

On July 1st about 150 of the sporting fraternity of Irma and vicinity journeyed to Wainwright by auto, horse and train to participate in their annual Sports Day which was especially celebrated in honor of the home-coming and victory of our returned heroes. True, the City of Edmonton aeroplane was hovering over the grounds, this caused only a casual glance, as the Irma baseball team was on the diamond matched against Chauvin with a sprinkling of Edgerton team assisting their eastern neighbors, but took defeat sportsmanlike in a 7 inning game 8 to 11.

Wainwright defeated Edgerton leaving the finals to be played between Irma and Wainwright. It had been agreed by both managers, Messrs. Graham and Eaton to play seven innings. Wainwright had a "dark horse" as a pitcher for the final game who emerged from the crowd and was introduced by umpire Garrison. Irma left the field at the end of the seventh. At this stage of the game there was some discussion as to playing nine innings so the game continued. At the end of nine innings Irma won, how much or what we will tell the whole sporting world next week. V. Anderson pitched the full 16 innings for Irma which shows he is a real pitcher and a good sport.—Contributed.

TRAVELLER KILLED.

P.J. Maguire, commercial traveler for Marshall-Wells, Winnipeg, was accidentally killed nine miles south of here Wednesday evening about 7 o'clock when the runabout he was driving turned turtle and pinned him underneath. When found, the body of the car was resting on his chest, pinning him to the ground. Death must have been almost instantaneous as his chest was crushed in. Nothing is known of how the accident happened, except that the road was somewhat sandy at the spot where the car overturned and indications are that he was in the act of putting on his gloves, and probably lost control of the car in doing, causing the car to skid and upset. The unfortunate man was on his way to Hardisty and had called at the local hardware about 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

IRMA LADS RETURN.

Three Irma boys have returned during the last week. Corporal W Steele one of the first boys to enlist from Irma returned home last Friday. Elliott enlisted with the 3rd C. M.R.'s and saw considerable service in France having been wounded once which sent him to Blighty for some time. Since last January he has had to spend considerable time in the hospitals on account of serious after effects of the flu.

Elliott's Red Polls Gone to Fairs.

J.H. Elliott left on Thursday of last week with a carload of Red Polls and Berkshire hogs for Calgary. Mr. Elliott intends taking his herd to Calgary, Edmonton and Saskatoon where he is well known having visited them all the last few years returning with a good share of the ribbons and prizes.

Crown Prince Has Escaped Parole

Urged Exclusion Of Japanese

Paris.—Frederick William Hohenlohe, the former German Crown Prince, has escaped from Holland and made his way into Germany.

Hints have come from Germany within the past few days that the military caste there would not be averse to bringing about a military situation within the former empire that would embarrass the allies in putting the peace treaty into effect, and it seems not impossible that the move made by the ex-Crown Prince is credited with some such plan.

The former Crown Prince made his way into Holland shortly after the signing of the armistice last November, and was interned there by the Dutch government, taking up his residence on the Island of Wieringen, in the Zuider Zee.

Pending details of official discussion of the event and its bearing on German affairs, and the question whether it involves violation of neutrality by Holland, is withheld.

Recent Berlin dispatches printed in the Paris newspapers are recalled in which unnamed but allegedly well-placed persons commented on the sinking of the German fleet in Scapa Flow and the burning of French battle flags, said they were not surprised, and declared that such equally startling events might be anticipated.

Characterizing the Japanese as the "hun of the east," the senator from California reiterated his charge that a Japanese syndicate had attempted to purchase 800,000 acres of the most fertile land in the San Joaquin Valley in California, and that the transaction was only halted when he complained to the state department.

Havoc Of Tornado

Cyclone Caused $3,000,000 Damage at Fergus Falls

Fergus Falls, Minn.—State military authorities in charge of the tornado-stricken districts of this city had compiled a list of 48 persons who are known to have died as a result of the cyclone. The officers in charge estimated the total death list at not less than 60.

Major Frankhurster estimated that the city's financial loss from Sunday's tornado is not less than $3,000,000. "A careful survey of the city shows that the early estimate of a million and a half loss is too conservative, and that the actual loss is at least $3,000,000," said the mayor.

"Forty per cent. of the residential district is in ruins, about the same portion of the business district has been demolished."

War Board Rules for U.S. Wheat

New York.—Julius Barnes, United States wheat director, made public a proclamation by President Wilson granting him full authority to regulate by license the exportation and importation of wheat and wheat flour for the purpose of stabilizing prices. Mr. Barnes said that the regulations he would put into effect were similar to those which have been enforced by the war trade board, which hitherto has exercised the functions delegated to him.

Cattle Embargo Is Still On

London.—Replying to a deputation urging the removal of the embargo on the importation of Canadian stock cattle, the president of the board of agriculture admitted no ground for the embargo on account of disease, the Canadian herds are the healthiest in the world, but if the board obtained the power of admission they must refrain from doing it owing to the present labor difficulties.

Prohibition Bill Dead

Ottawa.—In the prohibition vote all the Saskatchewan members voted for prohibition. The senate won't likely change and the bill seems dead. The fall session will be in October.

Invested in Peace River

London.—The Marquis of Queensberry has returned to London, having acquired large oil and other interests in the Peace River district.

Proposed Movement For Labor Reforms

Winnipeg.—A special dispatch to the Free Press from its Ottawa correspondent says:

"Important and far-reaching recommendations, designed to bring about the better relations between labor and capital, and to improve conditions, are incorporated in the report of the industrial relations commission, under Mr. Justice Mathers, who is expected to submit the findings to the government.

"The commission will recommend that a conference be held immediately with the provincial authorities, with a view toward bringing about the following reforms:

1. An eight-hour day throughout Canada.

2. A minimum wage for both male and female workers.

3. Collective bargaining, as prescribed by the railway unions.

The commission will further recommend that the Dominion government take steps, as soon as possible, for the formation of industrial councils on the Whitley plan, as adopted in England. It will urge that provisions be made for old-age pensions, that a system of unemployment insurance be inaugurated, together with insurance against sickness and disability.

Aliens Apply for Passports

Ottawa.—Many applications for passports are being received from persons of alien origin in the Dominion by the passport branch of the department of external affairs. The applicants include not only enemy aliens, to whom passports are refused, but men from countries friendly to, or which have been fighting with the allies during the war. In the case of such later classes, passports are granted only if they have been naturalized in the Dominion. Those who are not naturalized are referred to their particular consular agent. A great many applications are being received from Italians, Armenians, Macedonians, Poles, Ukrainians, and natives of various parts of Austria.

Shipload of Aliens Going From U.S.

Charleston, S.C.—The transport Marlin Washington was lying in the harbor here with about 2,000 Germans aboard, prepared to sail for Rotterdam soon, the exact time of departure depending on the arrival of 26 more from Fort Douglas, Arizona. Her passengers include enemy aliens arrested in all parts of the United States and interned for the period of the war.

End Of Winnipeg Strike

Bunch of Alien Enemies Are Recommended for Deportation

Winnipeg.—Twenty-eight alien enemies, arrested during Saturday's riot, have been recommended by the police for deportation, Crown Prosecutor Graham announced in the police court.

The men will be kept at the central police station and the provincial jail until their cases are investigated by a board of immigration officials.

Comrade Marin, who took a prominent part in the pro-strike returned soldiers' mass meetings, when it was decided to hold a "silent parade," which precipitated the riot, was arrested by the city police.

Martin addressed the mass meeting in Market Square on Friday night and the meeting held in Victoria Park Saturday morning.

Chief Newton stated that 220 policemen had quit and that about 180 of these would be taken back. The case of "some forty," he said, were under investigation.

The old members taken back have all signed the same agreement as the firemen, which forbids affiliation with the Trades and Labor Council and the taking part in sympathetic strikes. Each man before being again accepted for the force appeared personally before Chief Newton and took the oath of office and signed the agreement.

In the course of a statement given out dealing with the activities of the provincial government during the general strike, Premier T. C. Norris says:

"The government now proposes to appoint a royal commission vested with full powers to ascertain the causes and effects of the strike and matters incidental thereto, in the hope that the problems of labor and other difficulties of employers may be better understood, and that a sound and fair basis may be found on which matters in dispute from time to time may hereafter be adjusted."

"The step will, of course, not affect in any way any court proceedings."

"The commissioner we have in view is Mr. H. A. Robson, and we are at present in communication with him. With the termination of the sympathetic strike, the general strike committee which ordered it automatically ceased to exist. The position of the labor temple is now the same as it was prior to the general strike; the chief authoritative body being the trades and labor council. The possibility of a considerable number of men being left without jobs as a result of the unconditional surrender of the general strike committee has created great consternation at labor headquarters. It was officially reported that a movement was on foot to get a committee appointed to take up the question of reinstatement with the employers and to watch the interests generally of those who, though in many cases, dragged into the strike against their will, may find themselves out of work as a result. The failure of many to get their jobs back is given as the reason for the movement. While no approximate figure could be put on the number whose applications were turned down, it was declared in labor circles to be very large.

For the 225 vacancies at the Manitoba government telephones 350 applied, according to Commissioner George A. Watson. None of those who have been taken on the staff permanently would be removed in favor of those who had come back after the general strike had been declared off, the commissioner added. The same state of affairs applies to the case of the electricians. There are 100 vacancies to be filled out of 150 left vacant.

Permanent Cost Of Living Board Soon

Committee Report in Favor of the Appointment of Permanent Commission

Ottawa.—It is probable that the majority of the cost of living committee of the commons, which has been hearing evidence for some weeks, will report to the house in favor of the appointment of a permanent commission to be called in all probability the Inland Trade Commission. The proposal was discussed at a special meeting of the committee. G. B. Nicholson, chairman of the committee, is in favor of the suggestion.

A plan is to have three members of the committee, the chairman to receive a salary of $8,000, and the two other commissioners $7,000 each.

German's Way

Paris.—The Danish government has protested to the peace conference against acts of the Germans in Denmark. It is alleged that the Germans were selling property belonging to the state.

Rejoicing Over Advent Of Peace

Allied Soldiers Take Part in Celebrations

Copenhagen.—There was a remarkable spontaneous outbreak of rejoicing when the news that Germany had decided to sign the treaty reached Copenhagen. Many contradictions reports of the proceedings at Wadsworth kept the people in suspense until just before seven o'clock Monday night, when the guns of the British grand fleet and French warships in the roads shooting in salvoes announced the news.

The crews of the vessels, both in the harbor and in the roads, started whistles and sirens going, and climbed the masts cheering lustily. Previously the allied warships had been cleaned for possible action.

Many of the seamen got shore leave and joined the throngs in the already crowded streets, singing and cheering. Long processions were formed, in which numerous flags of the allied nations were borne aloft. The singing of the Marseillaise and other patriotic songs was to be heard everywhere. French and British sailors marched to the national Danish monument commemorating the war of 1864, and decorated it with flowers.

The populace wildly cheered the allies, who had won Schleswig again for Denmark.

When darkness fell the warships were lighted up with incandescent bulbs and threw their searchlights over the city. The Copenhagen newspaper printed enthusiastic articles on Germany's decision to sign the treaty.

Madrid.—"It was with ineffable joy that I received the news of the certain advent of peace," said King Alfonso in his speech from the throne that the problems of labor and other difficulties of employers may be better understood, and that a sound and fair basis may be found on which matters in dispute from time to time may hereafter be adjusted.

"The step will, of course, not affect in any way any court proceedings."

"The commissioner we have in view is Mr. H. A. Robson, and we are at present in communication with him.

The failure of many to get their jobs back is given as the reason for the movement.

"The people have expressed their will by the laws of the country," he added, "and they will not allow any force, however arrogant or powerful, to usurp the functions of the government or to challenge the forces of the government."

After reviewing the break which occurred in the labor party over the first conscription issue, and the resultant union of the forces of the National Labor party, led by William Hughes, the present premier, and the more numerous Liberal party, Mr. Watt said:

"The only safety for the country rests in the reaffirmation of this union, so that the two may be a national party in fact as well as in name."

Facing Expulsion

Expelling Unions for Calling Strike Without Sanction

Denver.—For participation in the general strike in Canada, several hundred members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers face expulsion from the organization, according to a discussion on the floor of the brotherhood's convention here.

Arthur J. Lovell, vice-president of the brotherhood, who returned from Canada, where he was delegated to investigate conditions, said conditions in Canada at the time of his leaving were "terrible, very serious."

Army of 400,000 for U.S.

Washington.—Without a vote, the senate adopted committee amendment to the army appropriation providing for an army of 400,000 men for the year beginning July 1.

The bill as passed by the house provides for an army of 300,000 and Secretary Baker had recommended that the total be placed at 500,000 officers and men.

Hold on to Kaiser, Dutch Warned

Copenhagen.—The German officers' association has telegraphed the Dutch government, warning it not to deliver the former Kaiser to the allies for trial, it was reported in dispatches received here. "We can protect the Kaiser with our bodies, but we rely upon the generosity of the Dutch people," the message concluded.

Profiteers And Reds Enemies Of Canada

Strike Leaders Remanded

Trials Over Sedition and Riots Will Commence Soon

Winnipeg.—William Ivens, R. B. Russell, Alderman A. A. Heaps, George Armstrong, R. E. Bray and Alderman John Queen, strike leaders arrested a week ago, will be tried in the city police court July 3 on charges of sedition libel and sedition conspiracy.

They were remanded by Magistrate Macdonald in special strike court on the request of A. J. Andrews, prosecutor for the Dominion government.

W. A. Pritchard, Sam Blumenberg, Matthew Charitonoff, Oscar Schoppele and Moses Almazoff were given a similar remand.

T. J. Murray, together with R. J. McMurray, will defend the prisoners now in Winnipeg. The men held at Stony Mountain penitentiary will be defended by M. Hyman. A conference of these three attorneys for the defense was held, when it was decided not to ask for a remand.

Turks Assault Greeks

Strong Forces Driving Them Back in Asia Minor

Paris.—The situation in Asia Minor is serious, according to official dispatches received by Reuter's limited bureau here. These advises states that the Turkish forces outnumber the Greeks four to one and threaten to drive them entirely out of Asia Minor. The Greek forces are reported to be retreating before the Turks, who are supplied with good artillery and plenty of ammunition.

—Stringent restrictions with regard to immigration and naturalization.

—Suitable housing for all.

—Reduction in the cost of living by the elimination or curtailment of unessential middlemen, by regulations governing cold storage plants and otherwise.

—Real democratic government by means of proportional representation.

—From the above and from other statements recently published," says Mr. Newton, "the Dominion executive obviously believes, and ample confirmation has been obtained from the present strike, that there are two main enemies to peace and prosperity in Canada today, one is just as bad as the other, and both really of the same type, viz., the profiteers amongst capitalists and the reds amongst labor.

It is clearly the duty of the Great War Veterans' Association to see that the activities of both are brought to a close.

"The strike has not been an unmixed evil by any manner of means. It has awakened the people from their apathetic slumber, it has shown the government that the problems of the undesirable alien, the profiteers and the high cost of living must be satisfactorily handled immediately, and that if the present government is unable to fill its place, in other words, the present strike has focused public attention on what the Great War Veterans' Association has been urging on the government of months."

Money For Belgium

Reparations Committee Sanction Priority Payment of $500,000,000

Paris.—The reparations committee of the peace conference has agreed to priority payment to Belgium of $500,000,000 from the German indemnities, it was officially announced.

Mobs Attack Hamburg Factories

Copenhagen.—Serious rioting occurred at Hamburg, where mobs attacked food preserving factories, it being alleged that the bodies of dogs and cats had been found in them. The managers were dragged to the streets and roughly handled. The war provision department was also attacked and its offices were wrecked. The mob tried to disarm troops marching through the streets, and the latter opened fire, a number of persons being killed and wounded.

Invited to Moon Jaw

Moos Jaw.—The council passed a resolution which will be presented to the local delegates at the union of Saskatchewan municipalities' convention, inviting the convention to meet here next year.

Fourteen Years After

Prince Rupert.—It is reported here that Simon Gun-a-noot, noted Indian renegade, wanted on a murder charge, and who has been in hiding near the heavy waters of the Skeena River for the last 14 years, has given himself up to Constable M. Kelly, of the provincial police at Hazelton.

Troops sent to Alexanderplatz were fired upon by crowds in the streets and from the roofs of buildings. They finally succeeded in clearing the streets. Elsewhere in the city, bands of marauders robbed shops and attacked citizens, rifling their pockets.

The neighborhood of the Stettin railway station, the Hochstrasse and the Barstrasse was notably disorderly. Street cars were held up, while rioters searched the passengers' pockets and stole women's rings. Here, also, soldiers were beaten and shots were fired from roofs and windows, and the police were forced to clear the streets.

The Tax Recovery Act.

The various Municipal Acts in force in the Province provide for forfeiture proceedings being taken against land on which taxes are in arrears. By these proceedings the title to the land is forfeited to the municipality, subject to redemption within a year, and if the land is not redeemed then it may be sold by the municipality. This method of tax enforcement has proved to be both expensive and tedious, as it requires the making out of a tax enforcement return; abstracts of title are required to be secured from the Land Titles Office for all lands on the said tax enforcement return; notices have to be sent by registered mail at least sixty days prior to date of the court at which the tax enforcement return is to be confirmed to all parties having any interest in the land and notice of court has to be advertised in the local newspaper and in the Alberta Gazette. After the tax enforcement return has been confirmed additional abstracts have to be obtained, two more sets of notices have to be issued and advertisements again inserted in local newspapers and Alberta Gazette, giving date of final forfeiture. If the land is finally sold, it is at least fourteen months from the date of commencement of forfeiture proceedings before the municipality realizes all its taxes, and as frequently happens in urban municipalities, the land cannot be sold at all, the municipality does not receive its taxes and in addition is out a large amount spent in obtaining abstracts, printing and mailing special notice, advertising date of court, advertising date of final forfeiture and so on.

Because these proceedings were so expensive, burdensome and unsatisfactory, the Hon. A. G. MacKay, Minister of Municipal Affairs, at the last session of the Legislature, introduced legislation under the name of the Tax Recovery Act, which will greatly simplify and reduce the expense of the tax enforcement proceedings in future.

Under the Tax Recovery Act, lands, on which taxes are in arrears on the first day of July of the year following that in which they are levied, are liable to be sold for taxes and the treasurer, assessor, or collector, as the case may be, of each city, town, village or municipal district shall, on or before the fourteenth day of August in each year, submit to the mayor or reeve of the municipality, a list of all lands that are liable to be sold for taxes. The mayor or reeve, on satisfying himself that the list is correct, gives the proper official a warrant authorizing him to advertise for sale all the lands included in such list. Such sale is required to be advertised once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper or newspapers published in the municipality, or if there is no newspaper published therein, in a newspaper circulating in the municipality. Such advertisement must be published not less than six weeks before the date of sale and is required to contain a list of the lands to be sold. In addition to the publication of the list as above mentioned, there shall be published once during each week after the period oft two weeks above mentioned, but prior to date of sale, a notice of such sale and a statement as to where the list of lands may be seen. Notice of the sale is also required to be published in two issues of the Alberta Gazette, the last issue to appear not less than two weeks before the date of sale. No lands, the title to which is vested in the crown, can be included in such sale.

Lands so offered for sale shall be sold to the highest bidder, and if they cannot be sold for the full amount of the arrears of taxes, they may be sold, for a lesser amount, subject however, to a minimum value that may be placed upon them by the council of the municipality. This minimum value shall not be advertised, but shall be treated by the treasures as the upset selling price. Any lands which are not sold at such a sale shall be included in the list of lands offered for sale the following year. The purchaser at the tax sale will only be required to pay at date of sale, the amount due the municipality for arrears of taxes and costs even if the land is sold for more than the arrears of taxes and costs.

As soon as the sale is completed, a return showing the lands sold will be sent to the registrar of the Land Titles office for the registration district in which the land is situated, who shall register against such land a memorandum of sale, so that any prospective purchaser or money lender may be protected.

All lands sold at a tax sale are subject to redemption within a period of one year from the date of sale. Where lands sold are not redeemed by the end of the year all parties shown by the record of the Land Titles office to be interested in any way in the land, will forthwith be notified of that fact by registered mail, and after a period of sixty days has elapsed from the expiration of the redemption period, a return of the unredeemed lands will be submitted to a judge of the district court, who, on being satisfied that due notice has been given and that all matters in connection with the proceedings are regular, shall make such order as to transfer as deemed advisable and in accordance with this order the treasurer shall then issue transfer to any tax sale purchaser, on receiving from him payment of the balance outstanding, and such transfer shall entitle the purchaser to an indefeasible title, except as to claims of the municipality and the crown. Any monies paid to the municipality over and above the taxes due, shall be paid to the persons declared by an order of a judge of the district court to be entitled thereto.

By comparing the procedure under the Tax Recovery Act and the provisions in regard to Tax Enforcement that have hitherto been in force, it will be noted that under the tax recovery act, it is only necessary for the municipality to obtain abstracts of title and, to send notice by registered mail, in connection with the lands which are sold and not redeemed, whereas under the forfeiture proceedings that have been in force under our municipal acts, it is necessary to obtain abstracts of title of all lands in which taxes are in arrears, to send notice by registered mail to all parties shown to be interested, then during the year allowed for redemption after the land has been forfeited, it is necessary for another set of abstracts to be secured and two more notices to be sent to each person shown to be interested in the land, and after all this trouble and expense the municipality in many cases is unable to collect any taxes whatever.

The tax recovery act provides for the immediate sale of land for taxes without waiting for a year as required by the forfeiture proceedings. If the land can be sold at all, this brings in the taxes immediately. It cannot be sold very little expense has been incurred. In addition to making provision whereby municipalities may obtain their taxes more quickly, the tax recovery act provides a simple method whereby action may be taken at an expense that will not be more than one-third of what it was under the forfeiture proceedings set forth in different municipal acts and if the land is worth the taxes the municipality gets results quickly, while if the land will not sell, the municipality has not been put to any great expense.

The provisions of the tax recovery act will come into force in the year 1920, and on and after the year 1920 the tax enforcement proceedings provided for in the municipal acts will cease to be operative, except insofar as proceedings instituted prior to the end of the current year are concerned.

Crop Conditions.

While it is a good thing to be optimistic regarding the crop prospects for this year, speaking of Alberta particularly, yet there is no use camouflaging the conditions as they are at the present time. From the Saskatchewan boundary as far west as Edmonton the crops have already suffered and the country is badly in need of rain. Even if a good rainfall comes this week and next, only a good half crop can be expected at the most. The grass crop will be a failure, is the opinion of a great many who have studied the situation. Southern Alberta has had another drought and things are not very bright down there. Cattle are coming in to the Edmonton stockyards from the south, says H. Case, a local buyer, who came home Sunday, and the stockyards men don't know where to place them if they do buy them. What to do for winter feed is a very serious problem facing the cattle men today.

Saskatchewan is far worse off than Alberta. The writer had a trip thru Saskatchewan last week and from Saskatoon west as far as Wainwright the crops have either not come up or have dried out. An occasional field looks as if it might produce something akin to a crop. From observations and reports we gather that crops sown on new breaking and summer fallow are doing well, but crops on spring plowing are way behind what they ought to be at this time of the year.

If timely rains fall within the next two weeks this country may yet stage a great come-back and surprise everybody. It has done so in the past.

Profiteering In Canada

While not proposing in this article to even attempt to define the causes or contributing agencies to the excessive profiteering which has been and is still rampant in Canada, and also while not attempting to assume responsibility for suggesting the nature of the remedy that should be applied, it can be said without any hesitation or qualification whatever that the Government at Ottawa must act, to succeed in definitely exposing these evils, and thus confirm what the people have long suspected. There must be action by the Government to end these evils. Unless such action follows swiftly upon these disclosures more harm than good will have been done, because the feelings of unrest are being intensified by the facts made known. The Government must act, and act quickly.

It Works! Try It

Tells how to loosen a sore, tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezene, the other discovery of a somnolent man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

Ask at any pharmacy for a quarter ounce of freezene, which will cost very little. It is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender aching corn and instantly the tension is relieved, and soon the corn is so loosened that it lifts out with the fingers. It is sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

Huns Have Not Changed

Safety Can Be Found Only in the Military Partnership of the Victor.

Paris.—The Paris newspapers, in commenting upon the decision of the German national assembly to sign the treaty, lay stress on the efforts of Germany to escape her responsibilities and see in it proof that the German mental attitude has not changed.

The Germans, it is learned generally, will observe the clauses of the treaty only with a knife at their throats, and point to the deliberate destruction of the German ships at Scapa Flow as a symbol and a warning.

Belief is expressed by the Echo de Paris that the resistance of the Germans, manifested not only at Scapa Flow, but at all points in Europe where they are not bound down tightly, will show the allies that safety can be found only in the military partnership of the victors.

Canadian Wheat Condition Good

Ottawa.—A bulletin issued by the Bureau of Statistics places the total area sown to wheat in Canada, this season at 16,958,500 acres, compared with 17,553,902 acres in 1918. The area sown to spring wheat is 16,160,750 acres, or 776,537 acres smaller. The area of oats is estimated at 14,564,000 acres, or 136,000 acres less than in 1918.

The average condition as of May 31 follows: Spring wheat 98, compared with 96 in 1918; fall wheat 101, compared with 75; all wheat 98, compared with 96; oats 95, compared with 100; barley 95, compared with 98; rye 101, compared with 94.

Clementeau's Work Done

Paris.—Premier Clementeau has expressed his intention to resign from office as soon as the treaty is promulgated, feeling that he has accomplished the task for which he assumed the premiership, says Marcel Hulin in the Echo de Paris. It is expected that parliament will ratify the treaty late in July.

American War Expenditure

Washington.—War expenditures of the war department between April 6, 1917, and June 1, 1919, totalled $14,544,610,000. Secretary Baker informed the special house committee at the beginning of its probe of the department. Of this sum $12,822,100,000 was spent in the United States.

It's no more human to err than it is to lie about it.

tawa inquiring into the high cost of living has dragged into the open light of day the extortionate profiteering in which many of the big corporations of Canada have been engaged, and which has enabled them to pile up profits ranging all the way from 70 to 300 per cent. These profits have been made by the meat packers, the flour milling companies, the manufacturers of clothing—in a word, the dealers in those articles which all the people must buy in order to live.

This selfish and extortionate accumulation of great wealth by the few at the expense of the many is one of the chief reasons for the high cost of living today which is driving men and women to desperation, and creating such a feeling of unrest and discontent that they are all too ready to act upon the advice and suggestions of extreme Socialists and agitators of all kinds, many even being willing to go to the length of revolution against all constituted authority.

It is not sufficient that Parliament should succeed in definitely exposing these evils, and thus confirm what the people have long suspected. There must be action by the Government to end these evils. Unless such action follows swiftly upon these disclosures more harm than good will have been done, because the feelings of unrest are being intensified by the facts made known. The Government must act, and act quickly.

How Marshal Foch Rebuked Germans

Gen. Von Winterfeldt, When Asking for Armistice, Wore French Cross of Legion of Honor

The tactlessness, lack of good taste, and utter mental obtuseness of the average Prussian is well illustrated by a breach of the proprieties committed last fall when Germany made her appeal for an armistice, the offender being no less a personage than Gen. Hans Von Winterfeldt, chief military plenipotentiary of the mission sent by Germany to call on Marshal Foch to arrange for terms.

It appears that General Von Winterfeldt, who should have been well informed on points of military courtesy, since he was reared at the court of Berlin and later spent many years in Paris as military attache, some months before the outbreak of the war was seriously injured in an automobile accident while attending manoeuvres of the French army in the south of France. He was tended with the utmost solicitude by the most eminent French surgeons. During his illness President Poincaré called on him and decorated him with the Cross of Officer of the Legion of Honor.

When the war broke out Von Winterfeldt took charge of the espionage service of the German Government at San Sebastian in Spain, doing no end of harm to the people who had treated him with such consideration.

How the Prussian general "roused the ire of the French marshal during the armistice negotiations is thus related by a writer in the New York Evening Sun:

Marshal Foch received the German delegates in the railroad car which he made his home, and which was then switched on a siding in the forest of Compiegne. When the German emissaries were ushered into his presence and Von Winterfeldt saluted, the ordinarily impassive marshal's eyebrows, for once in the war, went up. No wonder, for the German general had the incredible impudence to don for the occasion the Cross of Officer of the Legion of Honor, bestowed upon him by President Poincaré before the war, in total disregard of the fact that all French distinctions bestowed upon Germans had been cancelled by the war, in the same way that French naval and military men and citizens had "scrapped" every German decoration that they had received.

Before returning the salute Marshal Foch, fixing his eye on the Legion's cross and red ribbon on the general's breast, exclaimed in the most sharp and cutting tones: "Monsieur! I authorize you to remove that cross at once from your breast!"

Gen. Von Winterfeldt, thoroughly disconcerted, removed it, and, instead of laying it down on the table, placed it rather sheepishly and awkwardly in his pocket. It was only then that Marshal Foch acknowledged the salute and consented to proceed to business.

Miller's Worm Powders prove their value. They do not cause any violent disturbances in the stomach, any pain or griping, but do their work quietly and painlessly, so that the structure of the womb is imperceptible. Yet they are thorough, and from the first dose there is improvement in the condition of the sufferer and an entire cessation of manifestations of internal trouble.

The Bolshevik Failure

Bolshevist Utopia Demonstrated To Be a Right to Die Wholesale

Their military reverses are due to the fact that there is rotteness at the core of the Bolshevik structure. The people are losing confidence in it because it has failed to redeem its pledges. In place of happiness it has given misery; in place of freedom, tyranny; in place of a new life, a new form of national death. The poor man's Bolshevik Utopia of rights has been demonstrated to be a right to die wholesale of the plague; his liberty, the liberty to be idle and starve. In Odessa the workmen have grown suspicious of these "beneficent" ideas. "They have no objection to any castigation of the bourgeoisie, but will not permit such wholesale nationalization of factories as has ruined the workers of Moscow and Petrograd, and they insist on the retention of the managers and private ownership."—Baltimore Sun.

Royal Road to Learning

The local soviet in town of Kronzeh, Russia, has discovered what everyone else has failed to find hitherto, a royal road to learning. And like every really great discovery, it is simplicity itself. Placard the principal thoroughfares of your town with "portraits and brief news items" and what have you? Why, a "street university." "In this way," declares the Izvestia, "any citizen, instead of spending years at a bourgeois university, can pick up a general knowledge of the principal subjects as he walks along."

FATEFUL YEARS FOR ALL WOMEN

How Best to Overcome the Troubles That Afflict Women Only

The most fatal years in a woman's life are those between forty-five and fifty. Many women enter this period after depression, exhaustion through overwork, worry or a neglected condition of the blood, and so they suffer heavily. Still, variations of health at this time can be relieved by diet.

Among the commonest symptoms are headaches and pains in the back and sides, fever-flushes, palpitation, dizziness, and depression. Women in need of rich, red blood, all their life, and especially so in middle age, when the nerves are also weak and over-wrought. Now every woman can prove the prompt help afforded to her health by renewing her skin supply. It is a fact that any aging woman can make by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. For these pills make rich, red blood, which in turn helps the appetite, strength, and the nerves, and restores health. Thousands of women have found in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the means by which new health and a brighter outlook of life were gained. Mrs. J. H. S. Peterson, Milford, Ont., who says: "I have suffered greatly from those troubles that particularly afflict womanhood which particularly afflict womanhood should help me." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done so much for me that I urge every weak woman to try them and they will soon realize the great difference one's health they make.

CHAPTER ONE

The shadows of the spruce trees fell northeastward, pointing long cool fingers across belts of undulating prairie, or leaning lazily against the brown foothills. Like an incandescent globe the afternoon sun hung in the bowl of a cloudless heaven, filmy with heat, but the hot rays were met by the high altitude of the ranch country and lost their force like a blow half struck. And among the spruce trees it was cool and green, and clear blue water rippled over beds of shining gravel.

The ranch buildings lay a little to the rear, as though the trees stood sentinel between them and the prairies. The house was of round straight logs; the singles of the squat roof were cupped and blistered with the suns of many summers. Refuse lolled about the open door; many empty tins; a leaky barrel, with missing hoops; boxes, harness, tangled bits of wire. Once there had been a fence; a sort of picket fence of little saplings, but wild bronchos had kicked it to pieces and range steers had strangled unscarred across its scattered remnants.

Forward, and to the left, was the corral; mil slabs on end, or fences of log pole pine; a corner somewhat covered in, offering vague protection from the weather. The upper pines were worn thin with the cribbing of many horses.

The sunlight bathed the scene; nuzzled it in a soft, warm silence. The silence seemed absolute; the silence was the silence of the unporked places. But suddenly it was broken by a stamping in the covered part of the corral, and a man's voice saying, "Hip, there, whoa, you caucuse; get under your saddle! Sleepin' against a pony all day, you sloop-eye, Hipp, come to it!"

Horse and rider dashed into the sunlight. The boy—for he was no more than a boy—sat the beast as though born to it, his like frame taking every motion of his mount as softly as a good boat rides the sea. His red shirt and thick hairy shaps could not disguise the lean muscularity of his figure; the broad belt hat, and the revolver at his belt, gave just the touch of romance. With a yell at his horse he snatched the hat from his head, turning to the sun, a smooth brown face and a mane of dark hair, and slapped the horse across the flank with his crumpled headgear. At the signal the animal sprang into the air, then dashed at a gallop down the roadway, bearing the body as unconcerned as a flower on its stem.

Suddenly he brought his horse to a stop; swung about, and rode back at a gentle canter. A few yards from the house he again spurred him to a gallop, and, leaning far down by the animal's side, deftly picked a bottle from among the grass. Then he circled about, repeating this operation as often as his eye fell on a bottle until he had half a dozen; then down the road again, carefully setting a bottle on each post of the fence that skirted to the right.

Again he came back to the house, but when he turned, his eye was on the row of posts, and his right hand lay on the grip of his revolver. Again his sharp yell broke the silence and the horse dashed forward as though shot from a gun. Down the road they went until within a rod of the first bottle; then there was a flash in the sunlight, and to the clatter of the horse's hoofs came the crack-crack of the revolver. Two bottles shattered to fragments, but four remained intact, and the boy rode back, muttering and disappointed.

He reasoned with his horse as he rode, "Tain't no use, you ol' slope-eye; a fellow can't get the befe if he ain't got the fillin'; cooked meals and decent chuck. I could plug 'em six out o' six—you know that, you ol' flop-ears; don't you argue about it, neither—I'm right inside my belt, I can smash 'em six out o' six but I ain't right, an' you know it! You don't know nothin' about it; you never had a father, leastways, you never had to be responsible for one. Well, it's comin' to a finish—a damn lame finish, you know that. You know—"

But he had reloaded his revolver and set up two more bottles. He broke four, and was better pleased with himself. As he rode back his soliloquy was broken by a strange sound from beyond the belt of trees. The horse pricked up his ears, and the boy turned in the saddle to listen.

"Jumpin' crickets, what's loose?" he ejaculated. He knew every sound of the foothill country, but this was strange to him. A kind of snort, a sort of hiss; mechanical in its regularity, startling in its strangeness, it came across the valley with the unbroken rhythm of a watch tick.

"Well, I guess it won't eat us," he ventured at last. "We'll just run it down and perhaps poke a hole in it." So saying, he cantered along the road which skirted the spruce trees, crossed the little stream and swung up the hill on the farther side.

He was half way up when a turn in the road brought him into sudden sight of the strange visitor. It was the first he had seen, but he knew it at once, for the fate of the automobile, then in its single-cylinder stage, had already spread into the farther ranching country. The horse was less well informed. Whether or not in that moment he recognized the great rival of his race must be left to some analyst of horse character, but he bucked and kicked in rage and terror. But the boy was conscious not so much of the horse as of two bright eyes turned on him in frank and surprised admiration.

"What horsemanship?" she exclaimed, but the words had scarce left her lips when they were followed by a cry of alarm. For the car had taken a sudden turn from the road and plunged into a growth of young poplars that fringed the hillside. The old man at the wheel gave it a violent wrench but left his motor in gear, and the car half sidled, half plowed its way into semi-solid mud, suspended among the young trees. The two occupants were thrown from their seat; the girl fell clear, but her father was less fortunate.

In an instant the boy had sprung himself from his horse, dropping the reins to the ground, and then animal, although snorting and shivering, had no thought of disgracing his training by breaking his parole. With quick, ungainly strides the boy brought himself to the upturned machine. It was curious that he should appear to such disadvantage on his feet. In the saddle he was grace personified.

For a moment he looked somewhat stupidly upon the wreck. Had it been a horse or a steer he would have known the procedure, but this experience was new to his life. Besides, there were strangers here. He had no fear of strangers when they wore shaps and colored handchiefs, but a girl in a brown sweater and an oldish man with a white collar were creatures to be approached with caution. The oldish man was lying on the ground, with a leg pinned under the car and Brown Sweater raised his head against her knee and looked at the boy with bright grey eyes and said, "Well, aren't you going to do anything?"

That brought him back. "Sure," he said, springing to her side. "Whaddya want me to do?"

"I am afraid my leg is broken," said the man, speaking calmly notwithstanding his pain. "Can you get the jack out of the tool box and raise the car?"

The girl pointed to the box, and in a moment he had the jack in his hand. But it was a new tool to him and he fumbled with it stupidly. The handle would not fit, and when it did it operated the wrong way.

"Oh, let me have it," cried impatiently. In a moment she had it set under the frame of the car and was plying the handle up and down with rapid strokes. The machine began to groan with the pressure, and the boy looked on, helpless and mortified. He was beginning to realize that there were more things in the world than riding a horse, and shooting bottles. He felt a sudden desire to be of great service. And just now he could be of no service whatever.

But the foot of the jack began to sink in the soft earth, and the girl looked up helplessly. "It won't lift it," she said. "What shall we do?"

"It was his chance. He was eighteen, and his wild, open life, had given him muscles of steel." "Here," he said roughly, "move my leg when I get it clear." He turned his back to the machine and crouched down until he could get his hands under the steel frame. Then he lifted. The car was in a somewhat poised position, and he was able to swing it far enough to release the injured leg. "Very good, my boy," said the man. "That was a wonderful lift. The leg is broken—compound. Can you get some way of moving me to shelter? I will pay you well."

The last words were unfortunate. Hospitality in the ranching country is not bought and sold.

"You can pay me nothin'," he said rudely. "But I can bring a light wagon, if you can ride in that, and put you up at the ranch. The old man's soured," he added, as an afterthought, "but it's better than sleepin' out. I won't be long."

He was back at his horse, and in a moment they heard the clatter of hoofs galloping down the hillside.

The girl sat on the ground and held her father's head in her lap. Tears made her bright eyes bright still.

"Don't cry, Reenie," he said gently. "We are very lucky to be so close to help. Of course, I'll be laid up for a while, but it will give you a chance to see ranch life as it really is—he winced with pain, but continued, "I fancy we shall find it plain and uneventful. What a horseman! If I could run an automobile like he does a horse we should not be here. Did you notice that I didn't release the clutch? Just ambled into this predicament—embraced it, I might say."

Americans Fight Under British Flag

Largest Body of Men Ever Enlisted for War Under Foreign Colors

Now that the Americans who volunteered with the British forces are being brought together in England for repatriation, it seems likely that the number of these recruits was far in excess of the 20,000 at which it has been estimated. It will not be surprising if this volunteer army, whose individuals fought under the British flag wherever it fronted an enemy, reached a total of 100,000. Some enlisted in 1914, and the number grew from year to year. Whatever the final estimate, the Americans in British service made undoubtedly the largest body of men ever enlisted for war up to that time.

Any of these conditions should be remedied immediately so as to avoid a complete breakdown of the whole system.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will bring energy to the weakened organism, strengthen and regulate the heart, ad tone up the tired, overstrained nerves.

Mrs. William Steeves, Chemical Road, N.B., writes: "I have been a patient of Dr. Milburn's for several years. His pills have been a great blessing to me. I have had palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, inability to lie on the left side, feelings as if smothering, oppressed feeling in the chest, dizzy and spells, tired, weak, worn-out, feelings of involvement, restlessness, sleeplessness, restlessness, etc., all point to the fact that either the heart or nerves, or both, are not what they should be. Any of these conditions should be remedied immediately so as to avoid a complete breakdown of the whole system.

"He has given no evidence of great income. He dresses almost indifferently, sometimes wearing a lounge suit whose most striking detail is trousers with extreme leg tops, sometimes wearing khaki riding breeches, with gray golf stockings. He seldom appears without cap whose visor is drawn far forward and makes him still more boyish in appearance. He doesn't look a bit more than his thirty-one years at any time.

"His relaxations while in St. John's have been boyish. Almost nightly he took part in what his party called 'rag'—some bit of good horse-play. One night, after a scuffle, the bed of Capt. Michael H. Penn, business manager of the trans-Atlantic expedition, was filled with crumpled dog-biscuits. Another night the party invaded the room of Lieut. Lawrence Clement, meteorological officer, and snowballed him till he cried for mercy.

"On still other nights he went to motion-picture shows. The last picture he saw was 'The Man from the Hills' with Theda Bara, whom he thought a very bad actress. He and others of the party have received not a little social attention and have often gone out for tea."

Com. Macdonald Grieve, R.N., Hawker's navigator, has had far less edification but several different successes, but got well from the same trouble.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are $1.50 a box at all dealers, mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The last words were unfortunate.

Hospitality in the ranching country is not bought and sold.

"You can pay me nothin'," he said rudely. "But I can bring a light wagon, if you can ride in that, and put you up at the ranch. The old man's soured," he added, as an afterthought, "but it's better than sleepin' out. I will pay you well."

The last words were unfortunate.

But the foot of the jack began to sink in the soft earth, and the girl looked up helplessly. "It won't lift it," she said. "What shall we do?"

"It was his chance. He was eighteen, and his wild, open life, had given him muscles of steel." "Here," he said roughly, "move my leg when I get it clear."

He turned his back to the machine and crouched down until he could get his hands under the steel frame. Then he lifted. The car was in a somewhat poised position, and he was able to swing it far enough to release the injured leg. "Very good, my boy," said the man. "That was a wonderful lift. The leg is broken—compound. Can you get some way of moving me to shelter? I will pay you well."

JARROW

Our mail failed to reach the printer last week which accounts for there being no local items last week.

Everyone expects to have a good time in Jarrow to-morrow at the annual picnic and sports put on by the local U.F.A.

The booth has been moved to the school grounds where there is more shade and a superior play ground for the sports.

Carl Larsen has just returned from his mother's funeral at Ponoka. The sympathy of the entire neighborhood is extended to him.

We are keeping our running gears in good shape because if it does not rain soon we will surely need them.

Billy Mathew has his pool tables installed and expects a full house six days a week.

The cowboys seem to have created some excitement on their trip thru the small towns along their way home. Better send Bill up north for a spell at the outlaws.

A very serious fire has been raging in 49-10 midway between Minburn and Jarrow for over a week. The sod is so dry, it is impossible to put it out. Fire guards are completely burnt up by the slow burning fire, and it breaks out in the most unsuspected places. Nothing but a steady days rain will stop it and it will have to be a good one. Misfortunes always seem to come in bunches and just now when feed is so scarce it seems a pity to see even the sod burn up. No grass will grow over this ground for several years.

Recipe For Riches.

All the farmers should hold a great convention once each year, to which they could travel in their private cars. In delivering public addresses you should be very careful to be patriotic. You should point out the great service you are rendering to the Empire by your tremendous sacrifice in supplying bread. It would be well to have the Union Jack prominently displayed at your public meetings, and always close with "Rule Britannia." In a few years, as this scheme works out you will probably be given a title for your "service to the Empire."

All the leading farmers would be "Sir" and occasionally there would be a "lord" and an "earl." The country would be full of senator farmers. Some of you might even become members of the British House of Commons and buy a knighthood. Now is not this alluring? What more could the farmers ask for? And isn't it easy too?

There is just one little item that should not be over-looked. In return for all the favors which the government extends to you, you should give your appreciation at election time by giving a goodly contribution to the campaign fund. By this means the politicians will fool the people and induce them to vote against themselves, and as long as this can be kept up there would be no danger of your privileges being withdrawn. It would be amazing to see the railway magnates the manufacturers and other common people shouting "equal rights to all, etc.," and then defeating their own object with their ballots. But our readers may rely upon this advice. We don't know any place where it has been worked out, but the principles are sound and have been proved effective in Canada.

The End.

Wool Growers.

W.J. Stark, secretary of the Alberta Provincial Sheep Breeders' Association, states that a large number of new members have joined the Association this year, and that there will be at least 200,000 lbs of wool graded and sold through the Association sale. This is due to the fact that those who sold through the Association during the past four years have received the highest market price and many who are not members but who sold direct to the buyers realize that they got a much better price than they would had there been no association sale to keep up the level of prices. They recognize that in supporting the Association they are not only getting the highest price for their wool for this year, but they are strengthening the Association itself, and guaranteeing a market for the future as well. It is rumored that an effort is being made to weaken the Association by dealers offering the farmers a good price to sell their wool direct, but the farmers know that cooperation pays and that it is best to support their own organizations. The Alberta Provincial Sheep Breeders Association will advance 75% of the market value of the wool when received to those who desire this advance.

Auto Club Contests.

The Edmonton Exhibition Association have completed arrangements for the second annual auto club contest in connection with the coming Exhibition July 7-12. Last year three silver challenge cups were offered by the Macdonald Cooper Co., James Ramsey Ltd., and E.C. May & Co., one for the automobile club bringing the greatest percentage of its members to the Edmonton Exhibition; another to the club bringing the highest number of cars, the third was to the club showing the highest aggregate of miles covered by the cars to the Exhibition. These cups were won by the A.B.C. Club the Camrose Motor Club and the Lethbridge Motor Club respectively. This year the contest will be held on Saturday July 12, the day of the auto races and competing clubs are requested to report at 2 P.M. at the manager's office in the Exhibition grounds. All motor clubs in the province are invited to compete.
